In the case of a special meeting, the notice shall state the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. No business other than that specified in the notice thereof shall be transacted at any special meeting. Unless otherwise provided by applicable law or the Articles of Incorporation, notice shall be given to each shareholder entitled to vote at such meeting not fewer than ten days or more than sixty days before the date of the meeting.

(b) Notice to shareholders may be communicated in person; by telephone, voice mail or other electronic means; or by mail or other method of delivery. Except as otherwise required by law, by the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation, or by these Bylaws, the presence, in person or represented by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the aggregate voting power of the stock issued and outstanding, entitled to vote thereat, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the shareholders. Section 5. Adjourned Meetings. When a meeting is adjourned to another date, time, or place, unless otherwise provided by these Bylaws, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the date, time, and place, thereof and the means of remote communication, if any, by which shareholders and proxy holders may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such adjourned meeting, are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. A determination of shareholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders shall apply to any adjournment of such meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting. An appointment of a proxy is effective when received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes. An appointment is valid for up to eleven months unless a longer period is expressly provided in the appointment. An appointment of a proxy is revocable by the shareholder unless the appointment form or electronic transmission conspicuously states that it is irrevocable and the appointment is coupled with an interest.

Section 8. Remote Communication. (a) If authorized by the Board of Directors, in its sole discretion, and subject to such guidelines and procedures as the Board of Directors may adopt, shareholders and proxy holders not physically present at any meeting of shareholders may, by means of remote communication:

meeting by means of remote communication, a record of such vote or other action shall be maintained by the Corporation.

Section 9. Record Date. (a) In order that the Corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, the Board of Directors may fix a record date, which record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors, and which record date shall not be more than seventy days before the date of such meeting. If no record date is fixed by the Board of Directors, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof shall be at the close of business on the day before the first notice is delivered to shareholders.

(b) In order to determine the shareholders entitled to take action without a meeting, the Board of Directors may fix a record date. Such record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors. If no record date has been fixed by the Board of Directors, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to take action without a meeting, when no prior action of the Board of Directors is required by applicable law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws, shall be the first date on which a signed written consent setting forth the action taken or proposed to be taken is delivered to the Corporation in the manner set forth in subsections (a) and (b) of this Section 9. If no record date has been fixed by the Board of Directors and prior action of the Board of Directors is required by applicable law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to take action without a meeting shall be the close of business on the day on which the Board of Directors adopts the resolution taking such prior action.

Such record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing such record date is adopted by the Board of Directors. If no record date is fixed, the record date for determining shareholders for any such purpose shall be the date the Board of Directors adopts the resolution relating thereto.

Section 10. Shareholder Action Without a Meeting. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Articles of Incorporation, any action required to be taken at any meeting of shareholders of the Corporation, or any action that may be taken at any annual or special meeting of such shareholders, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice, and without a vote, if a consent or consents in writing setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted and shall be delivered to the Corporation by delivery to its registered office in the State of Florida, its principal place of business, or an officer or agent of the Corporation having custody of the book or books in which meetings of shareholders are recorded. Within ten days after obtaining such authorization by written consent, notice shall be given to those shareholders who have not consented in writing or who are not entitled to vote on the action.

Section 11. Meeting Procedure. The Chairman of the Board or President or such other person as may be designated by the Board of Directors shall preside at meetings of the shareholders. At each meeting of shareholders, the presiding officer of the meeting shall fix and announce the date and time of the opening and the closing of the polls for each matter upon which the shareholders will vote at the meeting and shall determine the order of business and all other matters of procedure. Acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

(b) Except as otherwise may be provided in the Articles of Incorporation, any director or the entire Board of Directors may be removed with or without cause, by the shareholders. The action must be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken and signed by each director or committee member.
